Emma's Journey

2023

Oil on Canvas

Emma's Journey portrays the model Emma, a captivating woman with many stories to tell of the mysteries and majesty of the universe.

Emma is depicted as a glorious spirit that has journeyed through the underworld to retrieve her soul. She has returned to the realm of light and life and is shown in a state of dignity and repose, sitting at peace between the two worlds.

Despite the grief and loss Emma has experienced, she remains a constant source of light and serenity.

The artist was inspired by the symbolism of the artist Susan Seddon Boulet and the beauty and vibrancy of Adrienne Stein's paintings.

Emma's Journey communicates an uplifting message of acceptance of the darkness and light of life, loss, and healing by presenting Emma in a serene state of meditation and wholeness.

Libertae is proud to display Emma's Journey and we hope that all who view her are as inspired as we are.

Letter from the CEO

Dear Libertae Friends and Supporters,

As we reflect on the past year, our hearts fill with immense gratitude for the amazing accomplishments made possible by friends, supporters, volunteers, staff and clients. It's a special privilege to continue Libertae's 50-year history of empowering women and their families.

Thanks to your unwavering generosity, Libertae raised over $104,000 during our last fiscal year. This support will enable us to lovingly maintain our buildings, grounds, and programs.

Thank you for taking the time to read this report. Together we will continue to create life-changing experiences that inspire, educate and uplift women of all ages and walks of life whom we are honored to witness their journey of recovery.

Very truly yours,

A Growing Community with Growing Needs

The opioid scourge has battered women and children.

From July 1, 2022, to June 30, 2023, Libertae is happy to have served 210 women and 38 children.

Our family-centered residential services help women and children heal from trauma and begin rebuilding their lives.

We provide safety and care for their mental, emotional, physical and social well-being in a warm and loving environment.

Our aftercare and recovery support services help women maintain their sobriety as they transition to independent living.

This year, our clients and staff worked together on several initiatives to repair relations and strengthen community bonds.

These efforts, as an adjunct to our residential services, give our women the best chance for lasting recovery.
